The Badge

Wear the White Ribbon, my sister,
O, wear it abroad!

You cannot tell how its whiteness
May speak for thy Lord.

Somebody's eye will be caught,
Someone will ponder in thought,
Lessons of purity taught—

Is this no reward?

Wear the White Ribbon, my sister,
And earnestly pray

He who is Lord of all being
May use it each day.

Pray that its spoken word,
Where there is need, may be heard;
Pray that the soul which is stirred
May have gone to obey.

—Charlotte E. L. Slocum.
